SHAKESPEARE THEATRE COMPANY

Celebrate 10 Years of Political Satire!

Monday, May 7, 2012

The Shakespeare Theatre Company's annual Will on the Hill benefit will celebrate its 10th anniversary this Spring, welcoming Members of Congress, Senators and distinguished Washington insiders onto the Company's stage to perform scenes from Shakespeare—infused with comedic references to contemporary politics.

Will on the Hill pays tribute to the unique dynamic of our city and provides a wonderful way to interact new audiences and support the Shakespeare Theatre Company's artistic, education and community engagement programs.

"I would suggest putting 'Will on the Hill' on your calendar if you want to enjoy a fun night in the theater, see members of Congress act silly intentionally, and help bring Shakespeare to the young people of greater Washington."

Washington Blade

"Each spring, members of Congress and the media are invited to show off their acting skills (or lack thereof). To play or not to play, that is the question."

NBC Washington
